Gospel

Gospel – Luke 9:46-50

An argument arose among the disciples about which of them was the greatest.

Jesus realized the intention of their hearts and took a child and placed it by his side and said to them, “Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. For the one who is least among all of you is the one who is the greatest.”

People who suffer from nut allergies can develop a severe, potentially life-threatening allergic reaction.

If someone has a nut allergy it is not just eating nuts that can cause a severe reaction, just being touched on the skin or smelling the breath of someone who has had nuts or a product containing nuts can trigger anaphylactic shock (which can cause breathing and swallowing difficulties).

First aid staff in the school are trained to use the Epi-pens (an injection of adrenalin) which is required immediately if this happens.

We cannot have nuts in school in any form.

Please can we ask that you have no nut products in the lunch boxes or brought into the school as treats. Snacks containing Nutella or similar spreads are not allowed.

For example Peanut butter sandwiches, Chocolate spreads, Cereal bars, some granola bars, Cakes that contain nuts, Biscuits / Cookies that contain nuts, Satay Sauces, Nutella spread or snack containing Nutella, Boxes of variety chocolates.

This list is not exhaustive, so please check the packaging of products closely. We appreciate that this is an additional thing to check and we know that you recognise the importance of it. We do have to insist we are a nut free school.

The Educational Psychology Service (EPS) and Primary Mental Health Team (PMHT) have been running regular half termly virtual parent workshops, aimed at primary school aged children, on helping your child with fears and worries.

These are always very well received by parents and, as such, we are offering further dates (see below).

The aim of the workshop is to teach parents cognitive behavioural strategies so they can use them with their children to overcome their anxiety. It is based on the book: 'Overcoming your child's worries and fears' by Cathy Cresswell and Lucy Willetts.

The group is a 2.5 hour online workshop – a “whistle stop tour” of key principles for parents. 'Free of charge, a no fee session'.

In addition, in response to increasing demand for support for children with autism and anxiety, the EPS and PHMW teams have developed a further parental workshop, aimed at parents of children who have been recognised as autistic, who have autism “traits” or who are awaiting a diagnosis, and are experiencing anxiety. The aim of this workshop is to understand some of the differences in thinking styles of children with autism and why this can make them more prone to anxiety - in particular, intolerance of uncertainty.

It pulls together information from a range of sources and offers practical strategies for support. The group is a 2.5 hour online workshop – a “whistle stop tour” of key principles for parents. 'Free of charge, a no fee session'.
