

Blog of the Week

Once again Nursery has a super blog, with the mysterious Elvis the Elf setting challenges for the children to solve and a super collage of the children working at their Christmas activities.

But Blog of the week this week goes to Mrs Cox's class, for their first blog of the year! They have posted a super video re-telling the story of Lost in the Toy Museum. Check it out here. Individual blogger this week is Eleazar whose story posted in Mrs Gooch's class blog is a continuation of a story he put on the blog last year when he was in a different class.

nativity play on Thursday and Friday... The Year 3/4 footballers took part in a competition at Geoffrey Field School and on Friday children from Years 5 and 6 played Boccia at the John Madejski Academy and came third. Phew! Now we all need a rest this weekend!

SNIPPETS

Please, Would parents collecting children from after school activities use the Exbourne Road entrance? The Durham Close entrance should only be used by children leaving from After School Club..

From December 1st the price of school meals will rise to £2.10. We apologise for this increase, which is outside of our control.

NO NUTS

It is vitally important that we have no nuts or nut products in school, as some of our children are extremely allergic to nuts, and the smallest trace can cause them to become ill. Please remember not to include any nut products, including nut butters, in packed lunches.

A Busy Week

Mr Cosgrove and Mrs Kassam's classes went to see The Lion King in London... Ms Wilkinson's class spent three days at Upton Court... Miss Sutton and Mrs Froud's classes performed their fabulous

Recording School Plays

Parents are very welcome to take photographs and videos at the various performances, but please could we ask that these do not end up on public view on social media? It is fine to share them with family and close friends, but

We started our week in Polish, and finished in Tagalog.

you cannot photograph your child without getting others in the same shot, so please do not distribute them more widely..

Puzzle Books

Huge thanks to Mrs McHugh, mother of Seamus in Year 6, who has donated a number of simple jigsaw puzzle books suitable for infants. Mrs Tetchner will be selling these for £1 each after school next week in Nursery.

Save The Children

After all our Christmas performances there will be a collection for Save the Children. Next week's Christmas Jumper Day on Friday is also for the same cause.

CAFOD World Gifts

Children are preparing for Christmas by raising money in their classes to buy World Gifts.

Apologies to Chinelo Nkwocha, who said Godo Afternoon for us in assembly but whose picture was left off last week's newsletter.

Reception 2019

Our school is extremely popular. We receive many times more applications than we have spaces available. Parents who have children already in the school, or whose children are baptised Catholics, should make sure we know this, by filling in our Supplementary Information Form, available on our website: Applications go through Reading Borough Council by January 15th. and can be made online, but the supplementary form should be returned to Mrs Brophy at the school.
