

Thank You

For Harvest Gifts. These will be passed on to Readifood to be given out to those in need in our local area. Thank you also for your contributions of money which will be passed on to CAFOD and go to help some of the poorest people in the World. We will give the total next week.

For your contributions to the Macmillan Coffee Morning last week: it raised £154.60 in total. Our thanks to Mrs Clarke for organising it..

Our Visitors

Thank you all for your help and support during our recent inspection. The report will be published in 3 or 4 weeks and until it is, we are not allowed to make any comment about the judgement.

However, as so often, we were extremely proud of our children: the inspectors told us that they saw no poor behaviour of any kind anywhere in the school. We were also very grateful for the many positive comments made by parents when they spoke to inspectors, as well as the fact that Ofsted parent view results were so positive. Thank you all.

Blog of the Week

There is once again stiff competition this week with some fantastic blog posts including The Tale of Fluffy the Wolf and Evil Red Riding Hood from Mrs Froud's class. But blog of the week this week goes to Mrs Bloom's class, with individual blogger: Seamus McHugh.

Cycle4Sport

A new opportunity to improve and develop existing cycling skills is available at the Palmer Park Sports Stadium, Wokingham Road, Reading, every Wednesday 4.30—5.30 (from the 10th) costing £4 per child (6—16). Experienced coaches will devise a range of skill—based games to enhance existing independent riding. Booking is required (www.readingleisure.co.uk) as well as the child's own bike, helmet and gloves.

FAREWELL
Mrs O'Shea
and

Miss McKenna

Two of our longest serving members of staff who are moving on this week. Mrs O'Shea will be embarking on a well-earned retirement, while Miss McKenna moves on to another post, as deputy manager of a Nursery.

NO NUTS

It is vitally important that we have no nuts or nut products in school, as some of our children are extremely allergic to nuts, and the smallest trace can cause them to become ill. Please remember not to include any nut products, including nut
