VACANCY

We are currently looking for a full-time Learning Support Assistant who will initially be based in The Ark (although this could change in the future). Further details of this post, and an application form are on our website. Potential applicants who would like an informal discussion about the post may speak to Mr. Cosgrove or Mrs Tetchner. Closing date: May 21st.

Charity Activities

Mrs Rutter is preparing for her sponsored walk in aid of Parkinson's Research this Sunday. You may donate online at virgin money giving: here.

Mrs Ryan-George will once again be doing the Moonwalk in aid of breast cancer research, and she is also offering raffle tickets for sale in aid of the same cause: tickets from Mrs Brophy in the school office.

Blog of the Week

This week's award goes to Nursery, who have posted three super videos, showing off their outside learning and their phonics. Competition was fierce for the individual blogger of the week. Angel, Luis and Erynn in Mr Cosgrove's class all wrote impressive pieces, and Hiba Rashid posted a super long story in the style of a Greek Myth. But for a really well written, controlled and informative account of the Irish Potato Famine, which even incorporated a book review, this week's blogger of the week is Tristan Shuttleworth in Year 5..

It was not a good week for punctuality (above). Monday and Tuesday were particularly poor.

Family Mass

This Sunday the 10.00 a.m. Mass in the church of Christ the King, is the monthly family Mass. The children of our school will be reading the bidding prayers and singing the hymn at communion. It would be great to see a really good turnout.
