Blog of the Week

Pig biscuits helped the Nursery children to learn about farm animals this week. Their super learning is showcased on their blog at www.cktreading.net with three super entries leaving no doubt that the Nursery is this week's worthy winner of our Blog of the Week trophy.

Congratulations

to Miss Shepherd who was married last week and is now Mrs. Bloom, we wish her and her husband a long and happy life together.

Candlemas

February 2nd is the Feast of the Presentation of Jesus. Often known as Candlemas, the feast is celebrated 40 days after December 25th. and is traditionally the day when the Church officially moves on from the Christmas season.

On this day we remember that Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the temple in

NO NUTS!

Some of our children have serious allergies.

Jerusalem, to offer him to God. Simeon, an old and wise priest, proclaimed, at the sight of Jesus: "Here is the Light of the World." Candlemas should remind us to show the light of Jesus' love to everyone at all times.

Please pray For

Father Pat & Family

Please pray for Father Pat and his family following the tragic loss of his young niece, a university student, who died last week. Father Pat has returned to Ireland for a few days to be with his family.

Parking

Please could parents be considerate of our neighbours. One day this week a parent parked across the entrance to Geoffrey Field Infant school staff carpark and made three of the school's teachers late for an after-school meeting..

We started our week in English and finished in Tagalog.

"Good Morning!" "Magandang Umaga!"
