No 335 1st. July 2016

Thank you all.

Heavy showers hit our Summer Fair but you still turned out in large numbers and was taken on the day. Thanks to Mrs Day for the photographs. There are many more on our website: go to Children and Gallery.

£2318

On Tuesday 5th. July School will be closed

Due to industrial action by the National Union of Teachers in pursuance of a national grievance..

Education for Personal Relationships

All year groups will be having lessons in Education for Personal Relationships over the next few weeks. The content of these lessons is set out on our website, on the Curriculum page. If parents have any concerns please speak to Mr Cosgrove or your child's class teacher.

Congratulations to...

Frankie Hawkes who took part in a feis last weekend and won three magnificent trophies—including winning the Under 14s category, which for an 11 year old is a tremendous achievement. She also came second in the champion of champions category in which she also beat older dancers.

Emily MacAuley was also taking part in an Irish dancing competition last weekend. She won 5 medals, including two firsts, two seconds and a fourth as well as 6th place in the champion of champions.

Dhiraj Sam-Harris who was part of the Eldon United tournament winning Under-9s side last weekend.

Aiden Buchan who plays football with Wokingham and Embrook FC and has enjoyed a great season.

PR Motors

Who very generously sponsored our new football kit, have mentioned Christ the King in their customer newsletter, and included parts of the thank you letters written by Yimin, Gatlin, Natty and Ciaren.

Reading Lions

The Reading Lions club has agreed to buy 5 more picnic benches for our school at a cost of £612. Huge thanks to them.
