Ordination in Rome

Last Friday Linette Abissi in Year 6 had the amazing experience of being in Saint Peter's Basilica, Rome, where her uncle, Ngalim Sunjoh, was ordained by Cardinal Mauro Piacenza.

Linette, whose mother Geraldine works in our school at lunchtimes and in the After School Club, finished her Year 6 SATs on Thursday morning and flew straight to Rome. On Monday morning she was back in school to tell us all about it in assembly.

Father Sunjoh has been studying for the Emily and Leaticia made a new friend on Thursday this week, when Mrs Asker's class had a visit from reptiles. The veeeeeery loooong snaaaaake will feature on their blog soon.

Please Remember No nuts in school

We have several children who are allergic to nuts.

Next Friday May 27th. The Ark has an INSET day.

There will be no school this day for the pupils of The Ark, except those in Year 6 who have a special workshop arranged for this day.

Mrs Cox's class and Miss McWade's class are performing in assembly on this Friday. Parents of Ark pupils in these two classes who wish them to take part in the performance are very welcome to bring them in from 9—9.30 a.m. for the performance.

priesthood in Rome but will return to Mamfe in Cameroon to work. Linette's photo (above) shows the men who are being ordained lying face down on the floor of the church. This part of the ceremony is a sign that they feel unworthy and will need the help of God to do His work well. Please pray for Father Sunjoh and those who were ordained with him as they embark on their ministry.

We started our week in Turkish and finished in Tagalog

Miss Hollow's class has posted some great photos taken at Mass this morning.

Honouring Mary in May

Next Friday, May 27th., at 2.30 p.m. we will walk from the school to the church to lay flowers in front of the statue of Our Lady.

May is a month when Catholics particularly honour Mary; when we remember that she said "Yes" to God without hesitation. She knew that what was asked of her would be hard, and she didn't understand why God had chosen her, but she never doubted that she should do what He wanted.

Gathered in the church next Friday we will ask Mary to pray for us that we may grow into the people God wants us to be, and that we will always say "yes" to God.

Parents, parishioners and friends are warmly invited to join us.

PTA Non-uniform Day
