The Tortoise and The Hare

Reception and Year 1 had a tremendous privilege this week when the Northern Ballet visited Christ the King School to conduct a dance workshop for the children. The Northern Ballet is performing The Tortoise and the Hare at The Hexagon Theatre on February 9th.

The Tortoise and The Hare, performed by the Northern Ballet, is a child friendly ballet which lasts about 40 minutes. Tickets can be booked through the Hexagon website. The videos of Reception dancing as hares and tortoises will be on their Blogs soon.

The Year of Mercy

Pope Francis has declared this year a special Year of Mercy when Christians should remember God's mercy and should themselves try to forgive others. The Pope reminds us that "showing mercy is not being weak; anyone who shows mercy is strong and steadfast and open to God."

Congratulations to...

Callum Darcy who plays football for South Reading Cobras and was Man of the Match in a recent game; Billy Brophy, Bradley Cox, Ciaren James, Natty Boakye, Gatlin O'Donkor, Brandon Heath, Loukas Chard and Yimin Gurung our year 5/6 footballers who excelled in last week's Reading-wide 6 a side tournament: they won 6 matches, drew 2 and came second overall after being cruelly denied by penalties in the final;

Maths Ninjas, Joshua Basa, Eoin Trussell and Ivan Villoldo who have been enrolled in the rank of Shodan and Theo Dirisu and Danica Monreal who have both achieved the Maths Ninja rank of Sandan after correctly answering 33 sums in less than a minute.

Very well done to all of these!

Fire Cadets

Former pupil Andrew Boldero came into Nursery this week (right) to talk to the children about Fire Cadets and what they do. More news on the Nursery Blog.

The best of this week's Blogs...

Emmanuel from Miss Hysen's class has written a super story which is on the class blog. Miss Casey's class has some super videos showcasing their learning and the Nursery Blog has news of People Who Help Us; not just Andrew (right) but one of our dads who is a postman, and Reception are posting videos of their Dance

Workshop. But best of the blogs this week is the new Molly and Arthur Blog by two new friends of Nursery. Check these all out on our Blogs.

Porridge Research

The porridge research starts on February 8th. A researcher will be making and giving porridge to some of our breakfast club children, but she also needs the help of children who haven't eaten porridge. If your child would like to take part please complete the permission slip which has been given to all the children who normally attend Breakfast Club. If you did not get one or need another copy these are available on our website at www.christthekingreading.co.uk/topic/school-clubs

Chess Club is back to Monday next week.
