A Wonderful Feast Day

Thank you to those parents and children who came to the church of Christ the King last Sunday to help us celebrate our special feast day. The children from our school read the bidding prayers and led the procession around the church. Well done and thank you to all of them.

Please Remember

On Wednesday of this week two of our children suffered an allergic reaction. Both children are allergic to nuts but we believe on this occasion the reaction may have been triggered by coming into contact with chocolate. Quite a lot of the most common brands of chocolate may contain traces of nuts.

Please could we all try to remember that we are doing our best to remain nut-free? If you are sending in treats for children (for example on the occasion of a birthday) please do read the labels. Thank you for your co-operation with this.

Thankfully, this week, the reactions were not as bad as they might have been, but we must all be vigilant.

Non Uniform Day

The First Sunday of Advent is this Sunday, when we start the period of preparation for the coming of Jesus at Christmas. Masses this weekend are as usual on Saturday evening at 6.30 p.m. and on Sunday at 10.00 a.m.

We started our week in English and finished our week in Tagalog

Good Morning

Magandang Umaga

Please remember—no nuts in school: we have several children with severe allergies to nuts.

Congratulations to...

Olivia Luczak who has been awarded her 25 metre swimming certificate;

Max Williams who has been awarded a place at Red Roofs Theatre School, Maidenhead. This means, sadly, that Max will be leaving us, but we are really pleased for him.

Daniel Brobbey who is now a member of Reading FC's pre-academy and has been chosen as the mascot for the forthcoming home match against QPR.;

Ethan Digweed, Anya Welsh and Angel Nwokporo, who have reached the Maths Ninja rank of Shodan by correctly answering 11 sums (mostly multiplication and division) in the space of a minute;

Emmanuella Addai-Bosompem who has been enrolled in the Maths Ninja rank of Sandan for answering 33 sums in the space of a minute;

Our School Choir who joined choirs from all over Reading this week at the Hexagon Theatre, singing songs from the shows. They were superb and made us very proud. We are not allowed to take pictures of performances at the Hexagon so our picture shows the rehearsal. Our children are here.

Very well done to all of these children! Well done also to former pupils, Kayleigh McDonald, Tyrique Beaton and Monica Cosgrove who all had important roles in the Blessed Hugh Faringdon production of GODSPELL. Our children from Years 5 and 6 watched the show this week and thoroughly enjoyed it. It was well
