No. 306 16th October 2015

Thank you for the Harvest. As well as the Harvest Mass in the church of Christ the King today, Early Years have also been celebrating Harvest. There are some super pictures on the Nursery Blog (www.ctkreading.net).

From Farm to Fork...

Tesco in Napier Road invited Mrs Cox and Miss McWade's classes to visit this week to find out more about where our food comes from. The children had a brilliant visit, and learnt a lot. Thank you Tesco.

Congratulations to...

Emily McAuley, justifiably proud winner of 5 cups in an Irish Dancing feis last weekend. Emily, dancing a hop jig, a slip jig, a reel, a light jig and a heavy jig gained three first places, one second and one third.

Connor McNiffe, who has moved up two gradings in kickboxing and has earned his green belt with blue tags.

Tiffany Maua and Caoimhe Rose who have both achieved the Maths Ninja rank of Shodan and can wear their red band with pride; Emmmanuella Adda-Bosompem who has gained the rank of Nidan by

Thank you all

The new television in the hall, which is used at all assemblies, was paid for from PTA funds. Thank you all for your generous support of the school.

In the Playground

In the mornings and evenings it is sometimes difficult for staff to keep track of the children because of the number of adults mingling with the children's lines. We ask parents please to wait at a distance: behind the line of the benches and planters or at the side of the playground. It really is much safer for the children.

School Uniform

There seem to be quite a lot of children wearing shoes that are not appropriate for school. Trainers, Boots and sandals should not be worn in school except on rare, special occasions. Please could parents keep an eye on this for us?

PGL 2016

There will be a meeting for the parents of all pupils in Year 6, about next summer's residential experience, in Mr Cosgrove's classroom on Tuesday 20th. October at 3.20 p.m.

Logan Lewis

On Monday 21st September I went swimming for the first time. I went swimming with Mrs Tetchner and the water was 1.3m deep which was nearly to my neck. I was a bit scared but Mrs Tetchner helped me not to be scared. After that I kicked and kicked and that helped me to swim when I was using the big giant foam noodle. I have been swimming twice now and I love it!

Logan has written a lovely piece with punctuation and spelling which is great for a child in Year 3, but more than that, his explanation of how he was scared at first but tried his best and that now he really enjoys swimming is a lesson to us all about how to learn and how to approach life.
